

Jenks Discusses Going Paperless on KUWJ-FM

KUWJ-FM, the National Public Radio affiliate in Wyoming, ran a feature story on London Jenks and his efforts to improve education through the use of technology in Thermopolis, Wyo. Jenks, a 2010 Teaching Fellow, teaches science at Hot Springs County High School and serves as the Technology Director for the Hot Springs County School District. During the feature, Bob Becks, show host, and Jenks discussed the benefits of having a paperless classroom, and how it enables him to track student performance and keep students engaged through the use of interactive lessons. The piece ran on Friday, October 18, and on Sunday, October 20, 2013. Read the transcript to learn more about Jenks' paperless classroom.